Walkin' a Mile

Cream Ale

ABV 5.3% • 10 IBU

Light Bodied, Golden, Malty,
Refreshing

The Quick Sell: A classic lighter style for hot summer weather

The Cream Ale has been around since the 1800s. While it is an ale due to the type of fermentation yeast used in production, it does undergo some cold-conditioning (or lagering) after its primary fermentation. It's almost like this ale wants to know what it's like to be a lager. Its refreshing and light character will have you walkin' a mile to get some yourself. And, maybe, while enjoying this small-batch beer you'll ponder what's it's like to walk a mile in someone else's shoes for that moment.

Food Pairings: Burgers, brats, pulled pork
