The Quick Sell: A working man's beer. Perfect for after some yard work in the fall.

This roasty, nutty, and caramelly beer is the result of Maris Otter and Vienna malts vying for your attention to notice their own special toasted qualities. The smaller Dark Munich malts just sit back and watch the show, playfully catching your tongue every now and then. The East Kent Golding and Target hops' rich, herbal smokiness plays referee, stepping in to break up the skirmish when needed and reminding the two malts that it's only by working together does anyone become memorable.

Food Pairings: Barbeque, pork, game, roasted chicken, fish and chips
