Schmidly Bock

Amber Lager

ABV 6.0% • 13 IBU

Light Bodied, Amber, Malty, Nutty

The Quick Sell: A wonderful fall lager that pairs with just about any meal.

In 2008, Asheboro voters seized the day and, on July 29, chose overwhelmingly in favor of all four issues on the ballot in the Referendum to Legalize Alcohol Sales in Asheboro, by an average of 60% FOR and 40% against. Without this historic referendum taking place, Four Saints would still be a garage dream.

To celebrate, we have brewed a beer in honor of one of the architects of that campaign in 2008, Steve Schmidly. He organized the efforts that eventually gave way to Four Saints becoming a reality. His favorite style of beer was an Amber Lager and that's what we've created - a sessionable toasty, caramel-like malt backbone with a slight hop nudge.

Hold your Schmidly high, and celebrate with us in Asheboro this Great Beer in honor of a Great Person.

Food Pairings: Grilled meats and vegetables, white cheddar, fruit desserts
